

TASTENTAGE KLOSTERS 2018

Music under your skin

SPONSORING ORGANIZATION

The TASTENTAGE are sponsored by the Culture Society of Klosters (KgK).

The KgK is an organization with around 400 members, mainly in Klosters, but also many from further away; as many guests in Klosters support our activities by being KgK members.

www.kulturschuppen.ch/vorstand

The KgK is organized into various departments, such as films, theater and cabaret, classic music, open stage, library, jazz and the special department Kulturschuppen, which provides the venue for the other departments. The Kulturschuppen presents approximately 150 functions every year.

www.kulturschuppen.ch/ressorts

About 50 active volunteers comprise a team which not only organizes technical and spatial preparations, but also takes care of the bar and ticket sales.

For the TASTENTAGE the following people have special functions:

Christof Hegi: project manager (IT/WEB/print/film), editor; active for over 30 years in jazz and concert areas as journalist (Tages-Anzeiger, Züri-Tipp), concert promoter, and for the last 12 years the jazz department leader in the KgK.

Konzertarchiv (at www.kulturschuppen.ch) with texts, pictures and sound examples

Rob van Schagen: sound technician, recording supervisor

www.kulturschuppen.ch/recordings/angebot

Roland von Ow; founder and director of Cinema 89 (since 1989), one of the founding initiators of the Kulturschuppen, technical director (since 2002); electrician/professional care giver, group leader and deputy dormitory leader ARGO Davos; light technician and external power supply

Natascha van Schagen: secretary KgK

Andrea Steiger: KgK treasurer, accountant, budgeting and cost control

Hans Peter Kocher, president KgK, lawyer and notary, president Pro Prättigau Association; applications and contracts

Helpers, active volunteers of the KgK